

Definition of Terms of Minimum Qualifications:

Education: Equivalent to completion of high school.

Successful completion of the General Education Development (GED) program can be used to in place of a high school diploma.

The following written documentation types will be accepted in meeting this requirement.

- a. High School transcript with proof of identification (e.g., name, social security number, student ID)
- b. Copy of High School Diploma
- c. Letters from Registrar
- d. GED letter of completion
- e. Admission to and completion of some work in a recognized college. (At least 12 semester units of college level courses.